Attorney for State of Alaska

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

)	DECLARATION OF JEREMEY
)	HOUGH

I, Jeremy Hough, declare under penalty of perjury that the following is true and correct:

1. I am the Director of Institutions for the Department of Corrections
("DOC") of the State of Alaska.

2. I was asked by counsel for DOC, Assistant Attorney General Matthias Cicotte, to collect information from the various institutions where federal inmates are housed with regard to the number of computers available for attorney video visitation and review of discovery materials. The facilities where federal inmates are principally held include Anchorage Correctional Complex (“ACC”), Goose Creek Correctional Center (“GCCC”), Hiland Mountain Correctional Center (“HMCC”), Fairbanks Correctional Center (“FCC”) and Lemon Creek Correctional Center (“LCCC”). However, at any given time a federal inmate may be held at any DOC facility, thus DOC is providing information on all of its facilities.

3. At ACC, there are currently 5 computers available for attorney-client video visitation, 7 computers available for inmates to view discovery, 6 one-way phones where inmates can receive confidential calls from attorneys, and 14 digital law library computers for legal research. ACC has ordered or is awaiting the installation of 9 more computers for attorney-client video visitation, 10 for viewing discovery, and 10 more one-way phones. This will result in a total of 14 video visitation computers, 17 computers for viewing discovery, 16 one-way phones, and 14 digital law library computers.

4. DOC had hoped to have all of these computers and phones installed by now, but the increase in bandwidth required by the new computers and phones required the local phone and internet company to come to ACC and install a new “switch” to accommodate the increase. The installation of the new switch did not occur until recently, but now installation of these computers and phones can continue apace.

5. The total of attorney-client visitation computers currently available at other DOC facilities are as follows: 4 at GCCC, 2 at HMCC, 2 at FCC, 2 at LCCC, 2 at Ketchikan Correctional Center, 3 at Mat-Su Pretrial, 1 at Anvil Mountain Correctional Center, 1 at Spring Creek Correctional Center, 4 at Wildwood Correctional Center, 2 at Yukon-Kuskokwim Correctional Center, and 2 at Pt. Mackenzie Correctional Farm.

6. DOC has spent hundreds of thousands of dollars on these equipment purchases and installation. It is important to note that the attorney-client video computers are not currently being used to full capacity. Further, most of their use is by attorneys for state court defendants and not federal inmates. The same is true of the computers for viewing discovery. ACC has had only very few instances of that system being used since it was set up.

7. It is my understanding that the defendants in this case have pled guilty and that the case will soon be closed. Nonetheless, it is doubtless that the court will have a continuing interest in the ability of federal inmates to meet with their attorneys and view discovery during the present pandemic. I am more than willing to discuss this personally with any court personnel who have questions about the present and future status of attorney and discovery access for federal inmates in DOC custody.

8. The above is true to the best of my knowledge.
